November 19, 2026 · Allan Gardens Palm House, Toronto

THE INVITATION

One extraordinary evening beneath the glass.

FLOURISH is an elegant, bilingual fundraising gala inside the historic Palm House at Allan Gardens, presented by La Passerelle-I.D.É. and Friends of Allan Gardens.

Guests enjoy a welcome cocktail, a private opera performance by soprano Christina Smith, a three-course dinner prepared by a French-Canadian chef, the FLOURISH Honours and a silent auction of original Canadian art.

DATE

November 19, 2026

RECEPTION

6:00 PM

TICKETS

$250 · Tables $2,500

THE CAUSES

Two causes. One extraordinary evening.

L'Agapanthe

Toronto's first Francophone transition home for refugees of African descent, operated by La Passerelle-I.D.É. Fifty beds with wraparound settlement support, employment pathways, language access and cultural programming help newcomers rebuild their lives.

Friends of Allan Gardens

Stewards of Toronto's historic conservatory, leading the vision to expand it with five new greenhouses and 16,000 sq. ft. of new space, free and open to everyone.

THE EVENING

One evening. Four unforgettable moments.

6:00 PM

Welcome Cocktail

Drinks and canapés in the Palm House, with a preview of the art.

7:00 PM

A Private Opera Performance

Soprano Christina Smith performs beneath the glass dome.

8:00 PM

Dinner and the FLOURISH Honours

A three-course dinner by a French-Canadian chef.

9:30 PM

Silent Auction

Original works by Canadian artist David Tomlin.

OUR GUESTS

On November 19, Toronto's business, civic, philanthropic and cultural leaders join Francophone and Black community leaders under one glass dome, for two causes.

WHY PARTNER

Visibility with meaning.

I

Meaningful alignment

Connect your brand with two organizations creating tangible impact for newcomers, community and one of Toronto's most historic public spaces.

II

Purposeful visibility

Be seen at an evening where culture, community and philanthropy come together, in French and in English.

III

A distinctive audience

Engage corporate, civic, philanthropic, Francophone, Black, arts and cultural leaders at a seated gala.

IV

A lasting connection

Be part of the future of Allan Gardens and a new signature event in Toronto's Garden District.
